EX-CROWN PRINCE BACK IN GERMANY

Allies View Escape of "Little Willie" From Holland As Fought With Significance

(By Associated Press)
Paris, June 27—Frederick William Hohenzollern, former German Crown Prince, has escaped from Holland and made his way into Germany. The event has caused considerable stir in peace conference circles. While it is not felt he is a figure around which the reactionaries and monarchists would gather enthusiastically, nevertheless the act is regarded as an event of considerable significance in view of the other German recalcitrancy.

Kaiser Expected Back, Too

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 27—It became known today that government officials here recently received confidential reports that the former German Crown Prince and also probably the former Emperor would attempt to re-enter Germany after the peace treaty was signed.

Counter Revolution In Berlin Expected Soon

(By Associated Press)
London, June 27—Bulletin—Disorders are increasing in Berlin, according to Amsterdam reports. Many streets there are barricaded and there have been serious engagements between government troops and mobs. In military circles in Berlin, the dispatch adds, it is asserted a counter revolution will begin as soon as a communist revolt against the government is started.

Von Hindenburg asked by Minister of Defense Noske, concerning the allied rejection of the German reservation in the peace treaty, said in the event of resumption of hostilities the Germans could maintain their eastern frontiers but he hardly was able to reckon on success in the west. "But," he added, "as a soldier, I must prefer an honorable fall to an ignominious peace."

Meanwhile the industrial council has assumed full political and military power in Hamburg and is sitting in the town hall. According to Berlin newspaper advices, a strong force has been ordered to restore order.

Mueller and Bell To Sign

(By Associated Press)
Berlin, Wednesday, June 26—Foreign Minister Mueller and Colonial Minister Bell were selected as the German envoys to sign the peace terms, it was announced tonight. They will leave Berlin Friday night.

Killed in Action—Conrad Watt, Hopkinsville.
Died from Accident—Calvin Jackson, Olney.

Hamilton Tipped

A dispatch from Washington today says that Elwood Hamilton, collector of internal revenue in the Lexington district, is definitely slated to be the sole internal revenue collector in Kentucky after consolidation which is to merge all five Kentucky districts in one. Some, if not all, of the four collectors who will lose their offices, will be offered deputyships.

Black May Use The Axe

It is reported that Gov. James Black intends to remove at least two of the members of the late Board of Control because of their alleged activities outside their official duties. It is said that two members marked for de-fecation officially by the government are F. Tom Hatcher, of Pike county, and Judge Herbert Carr, of Fulton.

Senate Asks House To Expunge Johnson's Remarks

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 27—Action rare in Congressional history, was taken today by the Senate in unanimously adopting a resolution by Senator Robinson, democrat, of Arkansas, virtually requesting the House to expunge from Congressional Record the recent address containing an attack by Representative Johnson, of Kentucky, upon Senator Pomerene, democrat, of Ohio. It was the outgrowth of his controversy with Pomerene over this District of Columbia rent profiteering legislation and which Robinson characterized as "violent, abusive, vituperous and denunciatory."

SAVAGE PAYS $4,500 FOR MOBERLY HOME

The attractive home of Neville Moberly on Woodland avenue was sold to E. W. Savage of the Savage-Smith Lumber and Coal Company, on his bid of $4,500 at the public sale of this desirable place Wednesday afternoon. The sale was conducted by L. P. Evans, local real estate dealer. Many regard it as the cheapest piece of property sold in Richmond in a long time, as the house has every modern convenience. Mr. Moberly plans to erect a home on the attractive site he purchased from J. J. Neale on the Lexington pike a few days ago.

Mr. Evans, who sold the house on the Summit for Miss Margaret Parrish to Wm. Millard, mentioned previously, sold another of Miss Parrish's houses to County Clerk J. W. Maupin Wednesday. It is located on Fourth street and is an attractive little home. Mr. Maupin paid $2,500 for it.

Takes Some Time To Get Fords in Western States

Supt. Handin, of the Ford Assembling plant at Cincinnati, was in Richmond Monday with Manager Galt, of the Sales Department, going over conditions with Madison Garage officials, who have trouble getting enough machines to take care of a constant demand for them. Supt. Handin has just recently been transferred from Salt Lake City, where he was in charge of a lot of territory in the west. He told the local dealers their troubles in securing cars are meagre compared with those in the western states, many of whom have orders as far as two years ahead in the factory for cars.

Hunting Oil In Mercer

Plans for developing oil and gas prospects on a 4,000 acre lease in the Deep Creek section of the west end of Mercer county, are progressing. Mr. Moss, of Louisville, brother of Judge McKenzie Moss, of Bowling Green, was in Harrodsburg and on the lease this week, getting things lined up in a preliminary way. Harrodsburg men will contribute about $20,000 towards financing the oil development and outside interests will supply the remainder. On two farms of this lease there are especially good prospects as one man runs his threshing and machinery with oil from a well bored about two years ago for stock water purposes, and at the other farm there is a well with a flow of gas so strong that it will ignite from a match held twenty feet above the opening.

Club House Burns On Dix River

The frame clubhouse at Camp Gravey, on the Dix river, was completely destroyed by fire last Saturday afternoon. A house party was being held there at the time of the fire and dinner was being served. The members had just started their noon meal when a terrific explosion was heard in the kitchen. A defective coal oil stove was the cause and so rapidly did the flames spread that every effort to check them was futile. Very little was saved; the members of the party lost $75 worth of personal belongings, and Mike Geary, who had rented the clubhouse for the summer, lost about $100 worth of furnishings. The house was owned by Reed Penman and carried no insurance. Miss T. Fox was overcome by the smoke while attempting to make some belongings and was carried out by Leney Byron who was fighting the flames in the adjacent room. The clubhouse had been rented by William Hoover, of Nicholasville. It is highly probable that a new clubhouse will be erected immediately.

MRS. WM. DEVORE DIES WEDNESDAY

Mrs. Anna Elizabeth Devore, wife of William Devore, one of Richmond's best known citizens, died at her home on East Main street at 4:15 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Devore was 72 years of age, and though of unusually robust constitution, for the past year she has been failing rapidly of ills incident to years, and the end came peacefully and quietly to this good woman toward the close of the summer's day.

Mrs. Devore was a remarkable woman in many ways. She was a devout member of the Christian church, having been converted under the preaching of the late Rev. George O. Barnes, some 40 years ago. She loved her church and as long as she was able was a constant attendant at all its services. Truly a "Mother in Israel" has gone to her reward.

Before her wedding to Mr. Devore in 1868 she was Miss Anna Elizabeth Jefferson, a member of a well known Madison county family. To this union, always a happy one, 11 children were born, five of whom with the husband and father, survive. They are Mrs. Robert B. Terrill, Mrs. Lena Dickerson, Chief of Police Claude Devore, Miss Katie Devore, and Frank Devore, just back from his country's service in France. A host of friends mourn with them in the loss of their truest and best friend—their mother. A woman of engaging personality and beloved by all, Mrs. Devore's passing takes from her family circle its strongest link and the hearts of her friends and loved ones go out in deepest sympathy to the bereft husband and children, in their hour of sorrow.

Funeral services will be conducted at the home Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, by the pastor of her church, Rev. Homer W. Carpenter. Interment will be in the Richmond cemetery. The pallbearers will be Messrs. N. B. Deatherage, P. M. Pope, J. W. Hamilton, E. V. Elder, B. E. Belue and M. F. Enright.

Local Ice Plant Kept Busy

The Richmond Ice Company is finding business brisk these summer days. In addition to taking care of the needs of this city in plendid shape, a large amount of ice is being shipped daily to Hazard, Beattyville and Berea, whose ice manufacturing plants have been out of commission on account of breakdowns. Local Manager Yates is having no trouble taking care of all demands upon his plant and has it doing first class work.

Start Work on Lancaster's New Big Tobacco Warehouse

Bingham and Stone, Richmond brick and concrete contractors, started brick work on the new tobacco warehouse at Lancaster this week. They took their crew down and will soon have the big building going up for they are rapid workmen and first class in their work in every way.

Richmond Girls Get Prizes

Two Richmond girls won prizes in the Lexington Herald's big contest which closed Monday night. Miss Eva Roberts, with over 3,000,000 votes won a vocalion and Miss Emma Davison with over 2,000,000 votes won a diamond ring. The five automobiles given away all went to contestants in Lexington.

Officer Shot By 'Shiners'

Deputy Sheriff Maryland D. Bates, of Thornton Creek, returned in Whitesburg from the mountains near Jenkins, where he had been on a moonshine raid. The officer became separated from his posse and ran upon two moonshiners carrying a quantity of whisky. Deputy Sheriff Bates asked them to surrender, whereupon one of them opened fire at close range. A battle followed. Bates escaped with only a shattered arm and slight flesh wounds in these and back.

Who Is She?

The Cynthiana Democrat in its Bourbon county news said this week: "The body abandoned a few nights ago in the woods of Mrs. Carrie Fisher at Paris was claimed by a local woman from Richmond, who said she had stolen it."

MRS. CHENAULT DIES IN MT. STERLING

Mrs. Margaret K. Chenault, a native of Madison and widely related here, died at her home in Mt. Sterling Sunday. The Mt. Sterling Advocate said of her passing:

Mrs. Margaret Kavanaugh Chenault, aged 90 years, one of Montgomery county's most respected and best loved women, died at the home of her son, Judge W. O. Chenault, on Sunday morning, June 22 and was laid to rest in the family cemetery beside her husband and two sons at 2:30 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The funeral service was conducted at the family residence by her pastor, Rev. Clyde Darsie, of the Christian church.

In 1852 Margaret Kavanaugh Oldham, daughter of Hezekiah Oldham, of Madison county, was married to Anderson Chenault, son of David Chenault, a famous pioneer Baptist preacher whose work among those to whom he ministered is yet counting for good until the fourth and fifth generations, and came to this county to make their home on her husband's farm, where she lived uninterruptedly and where she ended her days. To this union were born three sons, Judge W. O. Chenault, of this county and Waller and Anderson, these latter preceding her to the other land, and four daughters, Mrs. John T. Woodford and Mrs. James S. Bogie, Sr., of Mt. Sterling; Mrs. W. G. Dearing, of Louisville, and Mrs. Bishop Clay, of Lexington.

Mrs. Chenault was a woman of splendid intellect and a heart so tender that she wanted to mother and relieve every sorrowing, suffering or helpless being that came within her ken. Her charm of manner and cherry smile won for her friends among the most casual acquaintance, while strong character and steadfast dependableness bound to her, with hopes of steel, the friends who knew her best.

Burleson Defies Strikers

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 26—Bulletin—Postmaster General Burleson today told the American Federation of Labor committee he would not direct the telegraph companies to re-employ strikers as he considered they had left their work in violation of the rules of the government wire control and war labor board.

Yank Casualties In Russia

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 26—One officer and three enlisted men were killed and two men wounded, one officer and four enlisted men captured in the recent fighting with the anti-Kolchak forces in Siberia, the War Department was today advised. All were members of the 31st infantry.

Mrs. Flora To Move to Lexington

Announcement has been made that Mrs. Annie M. Flora will re-thatch Mrs. Annie M. Flora will resign her connection with the Richmond Millinery Company on July 1st and go to Lexington to make her home with her mother in the future. It is understood that she plans to erect a handsome home there, and she may go into business in the Fayette capital. Mrs. Flora's many friends here will regret to see her leave Richmond, but she will take their best wishes with her to her new home.

Selling a Popular Car

The Luxon Garage is selling a lot of the popular Chandler cars, for which it is agent in this section. Deliveries of touring cars were recently made to C. F. Chenault and Tilden Parrish. Irvine Hume purchased from this garage a very attractive sport model Paige.

Paint Lick Team Wins

The Paint Lick base ball team defeated the Point Leavell boys in a rather one-sided game by 13 to 4. The batteries were R. Davis, H. Halston, G. Prewitt, W. Mason, and L. Prewitt.

County Tax Commission Has

BOLT HITS CHIMNEY

During the severe thunderstorm which visited this section Wednesday about noon, lightning hit the home of Messrs. P. C. and Tom Black on Second street. The damage done was only slight, however, some bricks being torn out of a chimney. Luckily the roof did not catch fire and the damage can be easily repaired. A very heavy rain fell for a few minutes.

THIS WILL KILL BEER

(By Associated Press)
Washington, June 26—The House Judiciary Committee today split its prohibition legislation into three parts with the enforcement of war time prohibition separate and distinct from the others which relate to constitutional prohibition and the manufacture of industrial alcohol. For the first section, the committee decided to submit in whole its war time prohibition bill. While much less drastic than the general measure ages containing more than one-half per cent alcohol. It contains no provisions which would make it unlawful for persons to "possess liquor."

Beer Loses Here, Too

New York, June 26—The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in an opinion today in effect permits the New York prosecutor to proceed against the alleged violators of war time prohibition act. The recent injunction granted the brewers was dissolved.

House Defeats "Search" Dry Act

A measure providing for indiscriminate search of private homes for intoxicating liquors after prohibition goes into effect was voted down by the House judiciary committee. A provision of the anti-saloon league in the prohibition enforcement measure, allowing searching of homes on affidavits of "two credible persons," was stricken out, and a new section inserted so that liquor hunting can be done only on a warrant issued by an authorized court. Wets also won a point in eliminating the minimum fine and sentence for violators of the prohibition act. These minimums were $500 and thirty days. The maximum no wstands at $1,000 and one year.

This Doesn't Look So Dry

Collector John W. Hughes at Danville has been directed to make assignments of storekeepers and gaugers to the various distilleries for July just as the prohibition would not become effective. In fact most people are now of the opinion that prohibition will not become effective until the 16th of next January. They hold that the minute the peace treaty is signed the wartime prohibition measure is dead and that unless another prohibition law is adopted the liquor may be sold until next January.

Frankfort Men In Bad On

Whisky Selling Charge
Frankfort, Ky., June 26—Warrants of arrest were served on W. J. Kennedy, F. M. Dailey and R. E. Noonan yesterday charging them with disposing of whisky without paying the government floor tax. They are accused of selling 323 cases of whisky without paying the tax of $3.20 a gallon. The total amount of taxes alleged to be due is $3,100. The men waived examining trial and gave bond in the sum of $1,000 each to appear before the federal grand jury. Dailey is county attorney of Franklin county. Kennedy and Noonan operate the bar at the Frankfort Hotel. All are prominent citizens.

Twins Convicted of Murder

John and George Craig, 21-year-old Harlan County twins, Wednesday received life terms for killing Henry Saylor, of Harlan county last July. The case was transferred to Bell county for trial when a Harlan county jury disagreed last January. No appeal was made on the decision. Evidence offered was circumstantial. An early application for executive clemency is predicted.

To Preach In Airdome

Louisville, Ky., June 26—Gassed by the Germans and wounded by shrapnel in the Argonne forest while serving as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, Rev. Robert Lee Payne, militant pastor of the Oakdale Baptist church, Louisville, has signified his return home by instituting an air dome for church services where he hopes to minister in person, especially to soldiers who use the air pathway drive, the dome of church attendance.

HOPE TO SIGN PEACE TREATY SATURDAY

(By Associated Press)
Paris, June 27—Efforts are being made today for signing the peace treaty at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Council of Three apparently is satisfied with the semi-official assurances that the Germans will be on hand.

To Celebrate Over State

(By Associated Press)
Louisville, June 27—Mayor Smith has arranged at the moment news is received that peace is signed to have all whistles and bells in Louisville sounded. Gov. Black is arranging with the telephone companies to give a signal for the same celebration out in the state.

WILL PUNISH HUNS WHO SANK FLEET

(By Associated Press)
Paris, June 27—Germany was notified today the allies have the right to punish persons responsible for the destruction of German ships and collect reparation for their loss. The sinking of the fleet is denounced as a violation of the armistice and a deliberate breach in advance of the conditions of peace. This is contained in a note which also states when an investigation is completed the allies will exact the "necessary reparation."

MATHIAS DYKES PASSES AWAY NEAR FORD

Mathias Dykes, aged 73, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. S. E. Eades at Ford Tuesday afternoon about 5 o'clock of Bright's disease. Mr. Dykes was one of the most prominent farmers of Clark county and was much admired by all who knew him. Mr. Dykes is survived by his wife, three daughters, Mrs. S. E. Eades of Ford, Mrs. Kate Hurst of Richmond, Mrs. Eliza Myers of Richmond, and three sons, Frank and Charlie Dykes of Clark county and Washington Dykes of Richmond. Funeral services were conducted at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Old Dykes burial ground near Ford.

WANT STATE GUARD COMPANY HERE

Plans are on foot for a reorganization of old Company M, of the militia under the State Guard reorganization which is being undertaken by Gov. Black, in conformity with plans of the War Department. A petition is being drawn up for the re-establishment of Richmond's crack company, most of the members of which saw service in the big war. Major Stone Norman has the petition and is at the head of the movement to re-establish Company M here. In the reorganization of the State Guards, he will resume his former position as Major. There are a number of officers just back from active service, who are exceptionally well qualified to command the company. Capt. Willis Kennedy has been suggested as commander of the company, by reason of his rank, and there are a number of lieutenants and non-commissioned officers. It is believed that the boys who are now veterans of the service will take much interest in the organization of this home company for the State Guard. Major Norman is hopeful of having a sufficient number of signatures by Saturday night to insure the assignment of a company to Richmond.

CRESWELL CARSON

WRITES IN RUSSIA

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carson have just received a very interesting letter from their son, Lieut. Creswell Carson, who is with the American army in northern Russia, which will be of interest to his many friends at home. He writes:

Apr. 9, 1919
Northern Russia

Dear Folks:

Rec'd. mail the other day and it's a fine thing for the morale of the troops believe me. Sorry to hear that the flu is still raging there. Its been too cold for it here for several months. And while we're on one disease I will discuss diseases in general that applicable to these parts. From what I've heard of the past and observed from the sanitary conditions (that are not) we will be subjected to every ailment in the list and a few that aren't, when the snow goes. Being the engineer officer for the whole forward area caused me to be very vitally interested. The medical officers inspect but its the engineers who do the work, as in other things. Between defenses and sanitation I don't have much time left to compose poetry or do any more scratching than is absolutely necessary. Probably I'd better state that my outfit has been shifted some what from the scene of my last attempt at letter writing, also the railroad is farther away from us than Cincinnati is from Ft. Estill.

April 15—Am writing this letter by jerks, also slowly but am still determined to finish it. If I had your letters with me I could answer them in a regular conventional manner, but they are behind me so will stagger along.

I've gotten my taste of war this month past. Of course this scrap don't stack up to the Western front. Some people even laugh at this little war, but they are some 20 or 30 miles back, and aren't busting any hamstrings trying to get any closer. I am at present with part of my platoon, in a typical little Russian village on the banks of a frozen river. The birds are beginning to sing, wild turkeys to holler at night, (glad there aren't any screech owls or whip-poor-wills hereabouts.) The snow is disappearing and the river isn't as frozen as it was. At this point in any well conducted piece of fiction a statement concerning the numerous bubbling brooks should have been mixed in, but this isn't fiction neither are there any brooks bubbling, or otherwise, the main reason for their non-existence is the fault of the terrain—its too flat—rippling invisible lake would about cover the ground, I mean figuratively speaking, it does literally.

We have rubber boots and eat three times per day, also plenty clothes and work so nobody worrying. We've run across one firm friend here—viz: our old "tin hat."

If you have any curiosity as about what's going on in the Am. R. E. F., just get a Detroit newspaper (Detroit Free Press) only don't believe any more of it than you want to for I think they picture things a little too dark.

There's some talk of our being relieved here early this summer, if so you can look for me to come along back with the rest of this famous legion as I'm too old to wait around up here and grow up with this country.

I've allotted $100 per month beginning April 1, 1919. If any checks don't come through keep account of which they are and I'll get them when I return.

Guess the flowers are blooming, hens cackling and small boys spinning their tops, just as though there weren't a Bolo (Bolshevik) in the world, hey? Speaking of hens cackling reminds me that next Sunday is Easter. We can't celebrate it in good old Kentucky style by hiding eggs, and the natives won't either. They may have hidden eggs last year, but from all appearances they didn't do much of a job finding them. The last egg I saw was in Scranton, Pa. and it wasn't any thing to brag about.

You should see my office. It was formerly a Russian back parlor and the cock roaches are swarming over everything and I'm proud there's no worse.

Have had one great experience since I wrote the second installment of this letter; hard and dangerous work but good sport nevertheless.

Mud is about a foot deep now and the river is on its last back.

Well I must get this letter off as I hear there's a mail going out soon.

Give everybody my best and fight the flu. With love.

Mr. and Mrs. Mamie Prewitt are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter. The little one weighed 14 pounds and has been named Katherine Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Broadus and Mr. Cron Broadus spent Tuesday in Richmond and Berea.

Mrs. Cron Broadus was the guest of Miss Sarah Broadus Tuesday.

Life Was a Misery

Mrs. F. M. Jones, of Palmer, Okla., writes:
"From the time I entered into womanhood . . . I looked with dread from one month to the next. I suffered with my back and bearing-down pain, until life to me was a misery. I would think I could not endure the pain any longer, and I gradually got worse. . . Nothing seemed to help me until, one day, . . . I decided to

The Woman's Tonic

"I took four bottles," Mrs. Jones goes on to say, "and was not only greatly relieved, but can truthfully say that I have not a pain."

"It has now been two years since I took Cardui, and I am still in good health. . . I would advise any woman or girl to use Cardui who is a sufferer from any female trouble."

If you suffer pain caused from womanly trouble, or if you feel the need of a good strengthening tonic to build up your run-down system, take the advice of Mrs. Jones. Try Cardui. It helped her. We believe it will help you.

"I was troubled with female complaint for several years. My husband procured for me a bottle of STELLA-VITAE, from Mr. L. Hamrick, our merchant, which helped me so much that I used two more bottles, and the three bottles completely cured me. I am certainly thankful for this great female tonic."—Mrs. J. F. Lee, Ga.

BIG CROWDS AT VALLEY VIEW REVIVAL

Valley View, June 26. Splendid congregations continue to hear Evangelist DeGarmo, at the Valley View Baptist church. Tuesday morning a goodly crowd gathered to hear him on the subject of prayer. He used for his text Mrk. 11-24 and proved that the secret of prayer was faith, for Jesus said (Mat. 11-22), "Have Faith in God." He brought some wonderful illustrations of modern answers to prayer, in each case giving names of persons, dates and places where answers occurred.

At night the rain clouds gathered but the people did not until the house was comfortably filled and he brought a message from Is. 55-3 and proved that a child of God is never lost but that God chastises his children in this life for the sins they commit after they have been converted.

The Evangelist preached his illustrated sermon on the Ten Commandments Saturday night, in which he showed clearly that all men have broken God's law and are lost without a Savior and that Jesus Christ is the only Savior. He proved his position by the bible so convincingly that no one of average intelligence could mistake the plan of salvation. Mrs. Archie Ashcraft was converted and joined the church.

Rev. DeGarmo preached Sunday morning on "Heaven" from the text found in I Cor. 3:15, "If any Man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as through fire." The large audience was moved to tears.

On Sunday afternoon a large number of men were present at the men's meeting. The evangelist preached from Eph. 4:25-29. He pleaded with the men to live clean, honest, upright lives and to stand for such living in their community; but after they have done this it will not save them. At the close of the service a large number came forward and pledged to let nothing come between them and their God and the church. Mr. Rhodus gave his heart to Jesus and was saved. Visitors were present from Richmond and Lexington at each service. Sunday night the church house would not hold the great crowd.

Dr. DeGarmo preached from the Catholic Bible Monday night. The house was almost full. He preached from the three bibles that are used by the known christian world that God laid all of man's sins on Jesus Christ, and that Christ died for every sin of the world. Then from history he established the fact that Christ died over 1800 years ago and if the facts above are true then he died before our sins were committed and also he died for man's sins, when they were all future (relative to the time He died for them) then if this be true He died for them) then if this be true they have committed in the past. Therefore he died for men's sins past, present and future. Then it can be seen he said why Baptists believe and teach that a saved man can't be lost.

The three bibles that are used by the Christian world, King James or Authorized Version, American Revised Version and the Catholic bible, all teach same thing. This being true then the scholarship of the world from Moses to the present movement, teach it. Again, history teaches it. History records the fact that Jesus of Nazareth died on Calvary. And last, reasoning teaches it. Men reason: if he died for all of their sins before they were committed and while they were all future then he died for all of their sins past, present and future.

More High Priced Land

In Boyle county M. J. Farris Sr. has sold a half interest in his Jackson farm near Atoka to J. L. Butler, formerly of the Crescent Lumber Company. Some months ago Mr. Farris sold off several hundred acres of the place. Sam McConnell bought one tract, Isham another and John Lynn another. Some other tracts were also sold. The remaining place contains nearly 600 acres. It is understood that Mr. Butler paid $200 an acre for his half interest. The deal is said to have involved about $60,000.

Mr. Wilson, of the U. S. Labor Department, Says:

"Those of you who postpone buying coal in the hope of lower prices are speculating in the future misfortune of the Nation. Nothing in the labor situation warrants anyone expecting materially lower cost of commodities in general and coal in particular. Wages will not be less for several reasons. We are facing a serious shortage of labor as soon as we approach normal industrial activity."
